

It's just not right that Sinclair Broadcasting can force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. Airwaves are public and should serve the public, not a partisan interest.

Thank you.

Dave Muir